Living Sky Casino

This $35M casino opened to the public on December 29, 2008 in Swift Current. The Living Sky Casino features a circular gaming floor with exciting slot machines, fun and lively table games and a delicious menu in Horizons Restaurant. The casino is conveniently located along the Trans-Canada Highway, enticing visits from more than a million vehicles travelling through Swift Current annually.

In partnership with the File Hills Qu'Appelle Tribal Council, in 2008 this was the sixth and newest market that SIGA entered into. It was shortly after that the Living Sky Casino opened a state-of-the-art performing arts and convention centre known as the "Sky Centre" in February 2009.

The casino has played host to a variety of top notch entertainment acts over the past few years including the legendary Wayne Newton, George Canyon, Steve Earle, Ricky Skaggs and Kentucky Headhunters and Dr. Hook featuring Ray Sawyer.

The Sky Centre is utilized by community groups for everything from black-tie gala fundraisers to musical theatre, choir performances, and dance recitals.

Living Sky Casino employs over 200 staff members, contributing to the economic growth of local businesses. In addition, the Living Sky Casino volunteer committee has made an impact in many local organizations and charities by donating valuable volunteer hours and building positive community relations in keeping with SIGA guiding principles.

As a major employer in the province's southwest market and as a valuable entertainment and tourist destination, Living Sky Casino is contributing to the economic growth and prosperity of this region.

The Living Sky Name

The name 'Living Sky' relates to the northern lights and stars and their connection to past generations of First Nation ancestry.
